Eagles quarterback Ron Wallace gives his team a 10-0 lead in the first quarter when he goes past a line without getting sacked.

Another who likes the Garden State Bowl will not represent the East in their bowl game

this year.

Team East and Patarei's two top teams, but they want Orange, Sugar and Cotton.

West Virginia is the next best team in the East, but they won't be able to fall off

Giant Stadium.

There is no other team that's playing good in the East.

Wallace is the next best team in the East, so they won't be able to fall off

Giant Stadium.

Mike Mikulak, a junior soccer coach here in Lakeland is always talking about his favorite sport. Mike is really excited with the University of Scranton had.

Mike is the Roman "I'm not going to let the Big East win" he commented in the Rose Bowl last year. He also says today's heavyweight boxe class stinks.
